Part X, Line 2:

The Action Fund is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(4) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by The Action Fund in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Action Fund's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Transactions with parties with whom a conflicting interest exists may be undertaken only if all of the following are observed:

1. The conflicting interest is fully disclosed;
2. The person with the conflict of interest is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transaction;
3. A competitive bid or comparable valuation exists; and
4. The board has determined that the transaction is in the best interest of the organization.

Disclosure involving volunteers in the organization should be made to the board chair, who shall bring the matter to the attention of the board of directors. Disclosure involving directors and committee members should be made to the board chair, (or if she or he is the one with the conflict, then to the board vice-chair) who shall bring these matters to the board of directors.

Name of the organization Planned Parenthood Central Coast
Action Fund

Employer identification number
77-0304037

The board of directors determines whether a conflict exists and in the case of an existing conflict, whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair, and reasonable to the organization. The decision of the board of directors on these matters will rest in their sole discretion, and their concern must be the welfare of the organization and the advancement of its purpose.

The conflict of interest disclosure statement will be completed annually. Administrative staff tracks that the board of directors reviews the policy annually and ensures that each board member signs an acknowledgement form.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The executive committee for the PCCC 501(c)(3) organization, serving as the compensation committee, reviews salary information from other relevant non-profit organizations, salary surveys, and other form 990 information for the CEO.

The policy on determining the compensation of the Vice Presidents and President/CEO includes all of these elements:

1. The compensation is reviewed and approved by the executive committee, serving as the compensation committee, and the board of directors, provided that persons with conflicts of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement at issue are not involved in this review and approval.

2. Use of data as to comparable compensation:
